IMPORTANT GOVERNMENT ORDERS

EDUCATION SECRETARIAT

Approves the Revised List of Unit Officers.

READ—

Government Order No. 5771-630—C. R. B. 5-26-1, dated 10th June 1927, laying down revised Rules of Recruitment for the guidance of appointing officers and also defining the unit for the several departments for purposes of calculating vacancies and determining the method of their disposal.

2. Government Order No. 3-63—C. R. B. 1-27-4, dated 9th October 1927, issuing instructions regarding the officers to be treated as unit officers for purposes of recruitment in the several departments of Government.

3. Letter No. 1288, dated 3rd September 1942, from the Public Service Commissioner for Mysore, forwarding for approval, a revised list of unit officers reducing the number to 61, as some of the units are too small for practical purposes.

ORDER NO. E. 3102-66—R. & P. S. 21-42-6, DATED BANGALORE,
THE 6TH DECEMBER 1945.

The Public Service Commissioner has brought to the notice of Government that at present the scope of some of the existing units for recruitment is so limited that candidates assigned to them seldom get chances of appointment in those units on account of small number of vacancies, particularly

'general ones' and that some difficulty is also felt in the issue of 'B' lists to these smaller units, since it is not possible to include therein candidates of the several Backward communities. He has, therefore, proposed that the number of units may be reduced from 99 to 61. Of the 61 unit officers, who were consulted, replies have so far been received from 51, of whom 32 are agreeable to the proposal of the Public Service Commissioner. Government observe that the reduction in the number of units will not in any way affect the powers of appointment vested in any of the officers concerned but that these officers should make the appointments according to the classification of vacancies in the modified units and correspond with the Public Service Commissioner only through the officer of that unit. They are accordingly pleased to approve of the revised list of 67 unit officers as indicated in the Annexure.
